

Ella Michelle Niggli

February 1, 1988 - September 18, 2019

On Wednesday, September 18th, 2019, Ella Michelle Niggli passed away at the age of 31 in Lake Oswego, Oregon. Ella was born on February 1st, 1988 in Portland, Oregon to Elizabeth and Keith Niggli. She graduated from North Marion High School in 2006. Ella was passionate about her family, her friends, and her pets. She developed a love for animals at a young age, dreaming up ways to raise an Orca whale in the backyard with her brother. She loved traveling the world with friends, and capturing moments with her passion for photography. She had a huge heart and always wanted to help everybody she knew. Her smile was infectious and her laugh, contagious. She was great at re-telling stories that would get the whole room laughing. She spent a few years living in Bend, Oregon and enjoyed spending time visiting her favorite breweries and hiking Pilot Butte with her dog, Naoki. However, spending time with her family and friends is what she enjoyed most.

Ella is survived by her father, Keith, her mother, Elizabeth, and her grandmother Sharlene. Also her brother Josh and his wife, Angela, her three nephews, Ryder, Zane and Maverick, and her niece, Taya. And by several aunts, uncles and cousins.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, September 27th, 2019 at St. Luke Catholic Church in Woodburn, Oregon at 3p. A Rosary will be recited at 2p, and the 3p Mass will be followed by a burial and reception.

Comments

“ I met Ella in 2009 when I joined her veterinary team at Nyberg Woods. As everyone who ever met her knows, Ella had a powerful joy of life and a magnetism that drew people to her. She had a very large group of friends whom she spoke of often and she was exceptionally devoted to her family. Beth, she spoke of you often as her dearest love. I consider myself blessed to have known her and to have met many of her loved ones. I pray that the grief all who adored Ella will abate with time, but I know it will be ages for every moment that we wish she were still here. God bless you, Ella. And God bless her family as you learn to think of her as a guardian angel looking after everyone she treasured

“ I cannot believe that I will never see Ella's beautiful smile (her self-proclaimed 'vampire teeth' - so cute!) or hear her unique laugh ever again. I will miss her stories about Naoki; watching her nephews; and how her mother, Beth, had rescued her once again.

I cannot write about her in the past tense, because she matters too much: Ella, I love you. When I first met you I didn't know what to think, but it didn't take long to realize that you are an incredibly genuine bad-ass human being. You care about what you do for a living and you care about everyone in your life - family and friends.

We are so lucky to have you. (We are so lucky to have known you.)

“ Ella,
I miss you! I cherish all our FaceTime chats, laughs, late night texts, and endless selfies! From weekends in Seattle to Mexico, Hawaii, and across a few wine regions the beautiful memories will always be with us. From tripping up stairs to swim competitions-there was never a dull moment. Until we meet again my dear friend I'll do my best to keep the group laughing and 'snacking' Thank you for sharing your life with me "Ella Fitzgerald" I love and treasure you and carry you with me always. “ Ella and I cheered together in high school. She was so funny and so friendly and so loving. I know we didn't keep in touch after high school, but I always wished the best for all those girls, they're always in my heart. She's going to be greatly missed by every single person whos path she crossed. She just had that effect on people.

“ Life may have led us in different directions as adults but growing up with Ella and her smile and sense of humor was something I'm very lucky to have had the privilege of. When you grow up in a small town your families are intertwined through sports and other activities. They become a piece of your childhood, someone you will never forget. I'm heartbroken you were taken so soon, may you rest in piece.

“ Ella and I cheered together, and she quickly became a good friend of mine. We lost touch after High School, but she definitely left an impression on my heart. Anyone who had the pleasure of knowing her knows that she had the best laugh, and it was totally infectious! She was a true ray of sunshine, and a genuine soul with a heart of gold. She will be forever missed, and the world is a little darker without her presence. Rest In Peace my lovely friend.
