“ A little over a year and I still remember the Lety that came to aunts house with her baby. I was at that time a teenager, and although she was a mom already she was beautiful as ever. That was the first time I remember seeing her more than ever. Lety wherever you are please be in peace. The ones that stay behind will meet you one day, just like grandma Maria and all the other family members that are no longer here. Please be in peace and wait until you meet the love ones.
